PASSION

John reflecting on God's love poured out for us from the cross.

John: (Frustrated) He wasn't the King the people expected... He wasn't a warrior King, a revolutionary with an army, He was a servant King, humble, merciful, loving the unlovely. (angry at himself) But I didn't see it... I didn't understand! I've read Isaiah, I know what he predicted and prophesied all those years ago.

(Pauses thoughtfully) I remember in the garden, hearing Him pray just hours before His arrest... "Not what I want, but what YOU want." So selfless.

(going to write) and Peter... Peter! I can see him now trying to defend him, wielding his sword and cutting off the ear of the high priest's servant, (Pauses, panting... then gently) but Jesus just touched his ear... and healed him right there and then.

(dejected) And then the trial: such hypocrisy. And what can I write about seeing Him hanging there nailed to the tree? About such agony and pain...

(Raises his eyes to heaven and weakly smiles in wonder)

But I know... it was also the most wonderful day... because it was on that cross that You, Father (to heaven) poured out Your love for us. You gave us Your Son to die..... To die for us. The punishment that we deserve was put on Him! And now all I, we... all we have to do is believe in Him.
